PROGRAM SPECIFIC ELIGIBILITY FOR EXCELLENCE IN ADJUNCT TEACHING (EIAT)

Nature of the Program – EIAT

The Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Adjunct Teaching recognizes consistently superior teaching at the graduate, undergraduate, or professional level in keeping with the State University's commitment to providing its students with instruction of the highest quality.

Selection Criteria – EIAT

The primary criterion is skill in teaching. The following criteria are to be used in selecting nominees for this award:

- Teaching Techniques and Representative Materials – There must be positive evidence that the candidate performs superbly in the educational environments. The nominee must maintain instructional policies that adapt readily to student needs, interests and problems. Mastery of teaching techniques must be demonstrated and substantiated.
- Candidates' evaluations of students' work must be strongly supported by evidence. When available, student evaluations (in the form of student questionnaires administered and compiled by persons other than the nominee) may provide a clear idea of the nominee's effectiveness in teaching;

Additional consideration, as appropriate, may be given to:

- Outstanding support for the intellectual growth of individual students:
- Demonstrated use of relevant contemporary data from their discipline(s) in their teaching. Evidence may be scholarly and/or widely recognized experience in the field;
- Number of students per course; and
- Different teaching techniques employed.
